Scientific Inquiry and Quantitative Reasoning: Category B

The following courses are approved to meet the General Education requirements indicated. Please note the following in reviewing these approved course lists:

Refer to the online schedule of classes to see which courses are being offered for a specific term and to double check which GE requirements the course satisfies during that term.

Be aware that the GE Category (A-E) requirements must each be satisfied by a unique course. The "Other GE Categories" column below may indicate additional categories a course is certified in but does not mean that the course will meet more than one category requirement for an individual student.

Additional General Education Requirements should be met by courses also meeting the GE Category requirements to minimize the number of units needed.

Comments are added to the course lists below to highlight changes in the approved active GE course lists.

See Previous Courses to research courses that previously met GE requirements.

Students should regularly run their Academic Requirements Report on MyCSULB to monitor their completion of all degree requirements including General Education.

PHYSICAL SCIENCES: CATEGORY B1

The following physical science courses are intended to impact knowledge of the facts and principles which form the foundations of non-living systems. Such studies should promote understanding and appreciation of the methodologies of science as investigative tools, the limitations of scientific endeavors: namely, what is the evidence and how was it derived? In addition, particular attention is given to the influence which the acquisition of scientific knowledge has had on the development of the world's civilizations, not only as expressed in the past but also in present times.

Note: Students must take a laboratory associated with either their Life Science course or their Physical Science Course.

PHYSICAL SCIENCES WITH LABORATORY: CATEGORY B1/B3

Courses in this category may include lecture/laboratory courses or combinations of lecture course and a separate but related laboratory course.

- Students should regularly run their Academic Requirements Report on MyCSULB to monitor their completion of all degree requirements including General Education.

THE ARTS: CATEGORY C1

objectively to experience and to develop a sense of the integrity of emotional and intellectual response. Students should be motivated to cultivate and refine their affective as well as cognitive and physical faculties through studying great works of the human imagination, which could include active participation in individual esthetic, creative experience. Equally important is the intellectual examination of the subjective response, thereby increasing awareness and appreciation in the traditional humanistic disciplines such as art, dance, drama, literature, and music. The arts disciplines of film and design are also included in this category. Therefore courses in this category address the cultural and aesthetic context of the experience. The requirement should result in the student's better understanding of the interrelationship between the creative arts, the humanities and self. Studies in these areas include exposure to both Western and non-Western cultures.

2019 GE APPROVED COURSES - CATEGORY E - LOWER DIVISION

Lifelong Learning and Self-Development (Category E) - Fall 2019 Lower Division

The following courses are approved to meet the General Education requirements indicated. Please note the following in reviewing these approved course lists:

Refer to the online schedule of classes to see which courses are being offered for a specific term and to double check which GE requirements the course satisfies during that term.

Be aware that the GE Category (A-E) requirements must each be satisfied by a unique course. The "Other GE Categories" column below may indicate additional categories a course is certified in but does not mean that the course will meet more than one category requirement for an individual student.

Additional General Education Requirements should be met by courses also meeting the GE Category requirements to minimize the number of units needed.

Comments are added to the course lists below to highlight changes in the approved active GE course lists. See Previous Courses to research courses that previously met GE requirements.

Students should regularly run their Academic Requirements Report on MyCSULB to monitor their completion of all degree requirements including General Education.

LIFELONG LEARNING AND SELF-DEVELOPMENT: GE CATEGORY E - FALL 2019 LOWER DIVISION

The following courses facilitate understanding of the human being as an integrated physiological, social, and psychological organism. Courses take into consideration selective matters such as human behavior, sexuality, nutrition, health, stress, key relationships of humankind to the social and physical environment, and implications of death and dying. Physical activity could be included, provided that it is an integral part of the study.
